

January 22, 2020: VICTORIA MEMORIAL HALL

11:40am: The History of India for Children – Archana Garodia shares stories from her book about some amazing events and people in India's past that make our country what it is

12:25pm: Girl Power! – Neha Hiranandani on her new book and the need to empower young minds with real stories

January 23, 2020: GALERIE 88

11am to 6pm: Creative workshops for children and young people

January 24, 2020: VICTORIA MEMORIAL HALL

10am: Book launch of A Very Naughty Dragon – Paro Anand and Sarah Rose

10:40am: The Bhyabachyaka and Other Wild Poems – A reading and interaction with authors Eurig Salisbury and Sampurna Chattarji

11:30am: Reading from A Cloud Called Bhura – Bijal Vachharajani reads from her book, a climate adventure where young climate champions take on the global environmental crisis

12:10pm: Reading from Kalkatta Chronicles – Rediscover your city and its endearing quirks and idiosyncrasies through Supriya Newar's book

12:40pm: Stand Up for Mr Pal – Lessons from school life from Kolkata boy Anuvab Pal

1:10pm: Rediscover – Ruskin Bond discusses what only reading can teach you. In conversation with Neha Hiranandani

Schedule subject to minor changes*

Principal Partners				Media Partner	Outdoor Partner
Organised By	Hospitality Partner	Radio Partner	Bookstore Partner			